Welcome to 335 E Connecticut Avenue, a rare opportunity to own a piece of Southern Pines history while enjoying the ultimate walkable lifestyle. This distinguished Dutch Colonial, built circa 1920 and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, sits in the heart of downtown Southern Pines-steps from charming wine bars, cocktail lounges, coffee shops, the library, and all the amenities that make small-town living so desirable. The home's thoughtfully preserved interior spans 2,312 heated square feet across three levels, with historic details lovingly maintained throughout. The first floor features a beautifully updated kitchen with new appliances (including natural gas stove!) and ample storage, a formal dining room with French doors, and a living room with decorative fireplace. The show-stopping main level primary suite offers exposed beams, a chandelier, walk-in closet, and stunning ensuite bathroom with clawfoot tub. Three additional bedrooms and another clawfoot tub bath occupy the upper level, while a first-floor half bath and charming herringbone brick mudroom complete the main living spaces. The versatility continues beyond the main house. The partially finished lower level provides 311 square feet of heated and cooled space-perfect for a media room, playroom, or home office-plus laundry and unfinished storage. Outside, a charming brick front path leads to a covered porch, while a brick side patio and large sunny deck
